
Attachment 1: Icebreaker Questions

Questions that help break the ice can help get discussions going and help people to get to know each other better. Each person should be able to answer the question and these questions are particularly helpful if a group doesn't know each other very well yet.

- What is your favorite food?
- What do you like to do the most in your free time?
- What person has had the greatest influence on your life? Why?
- What is your favorite childhood memory?
- What did you do for your last birthday?
- Who was your childhood hero?
- What traditions or rituals do you have in your family?
- Where did you spend your nicest vacation?
- What place in the whole world would you like to visit?
- How do you like to spend a free day?
- What things really drive you crazy?
- How can someone best do something to make you happy?
- What book, besides the Bible, have you read and can recommend to us?
- What do you like about your job or school?
- What do you want to accomplish in life?
- Where did you take your longest trip?
- What 5 things would you take with you on a desert-island?
- What 3 characteristics describe you the best?
- What person would you like to meet personally someday?
- What impresses you the most about Jesus?
- In what situation did you distinctly experience Jesus in your life?
- What are you thankful for at the moment?
- If you could ask God one question what would it be?
- Which of God's characteristics has special meaning for you?
- What are you looking forward to the most when you think about heaven?